

One-day 'School sensitization workshops in earthquake vulnerable north eastern states' held at the CSIR-NEIST Branch Laboratory, Imphal (Manipur) on Sept 25, 2014

One-day School sensitization workshop in Earthquake vulnerable north eastern states was conducted at the CSIR-NEIST Branch Laboratory, Imphal (Manipur) on Sept 25, 2014 under joint collaboration of CSIR-NEIST, Jorhat under the project of NDMA, New Delhi, Govt. of India. A total of 1710 students and 31 teachers from 13 schools of Manipur have attended the program. The inaugurated program was opened by Shri Uttam C Laisram, Director, Directorate of Science & Technology & Information, Govt. of Manipur, Shri Th Surendranath Singh, Director, Manipur Science & Technology Council, Dr S Bimolakumari Devi, Chief Medical Officer, Imphal West, Manipur, Dr R Duarah, Chief Scientist, CSIR-NEIST, Jorhat, Dr RS Saxena, Team Leader, Earthquake Project, NDMA, New Delhi, Govt. of India and Dr HB Singh, Scientist-in-Charge of CSIR-NEIST Branch Laboratory, Imphal. The program includes film show, lecture series, demonstration on earthquake, medical first aid, etc.