

IN BRIEF

Palace are out of the drop zone

■ HUDDERSFIELD: Roy Hodgson's Crystal Palace ended a seven-game winless run and moved out of the relegation zone after an accomplished 2-0 win at fellow Premier League strugglers Huddersfield Town on Saturday. Palace were full value for the victory having taken the lead in the 23rd minute through James Tomkins, before skipper Luka Milivojevic's 68th-minute penalty secured the win. The victory moved Palace up to 16th place — on 30 points — a point behind Huddersfield, who are 15th. And with bottom pair Stoke and West Brom losing, it was the perfect day for Hodgson and his team. Eriksen brace

■ LONDON: Tottenham Hotspur's Christian Eriksen scored twice in a 3-0 victory at Swansea City as the north London club breezed into the FA Cup semi-finals on Saturday. The Dane's exquisite left-foot strike put Spurs in front after 11 minutes in a one-sided tie at the Liberty Stadium. Reuters

Yaya return

■ ABIDJAN: Ivory Coast's Manchester City midfielder Yaya Toure, who turns 35 in May, will return to international football more than three years since his last game for his country after being named in the squad for friendlies in France next week. Reuters

■ CALCUTTA: CESC defeated Customs 2-1 in a first division Group A match of the BHA League on Saturday. Sunil Kanti scored a brace for the winners and Reshab Anand Kushwaha was on target for Customs. Calcutta Adibasis Club accounted for SAI Training Centre 4-2. Julius Herenj scored twice, while Sandeep Topno and Roshan Ekka netted once each for Adibasis Club. Roshan Kumar and Jony Kumar were on target for SAI Training Centre. CC&FC trounced Chotanagpur Recreation Club 7-1. A Staff Reporter

Halep stunned

■ MIAMI: Japan's Naomi Osaka made short work of a subdued world No. 1 Simona Halep on Friday, as she raced to a 6-3, 6-0 semi-final victory to set up a surprise BNP Paribas Open final against Daria Kasatkina. The Russian continued her sparkling run of form when she outlasted Venus Williams 4-6, 6-4, 7-5 in a slugfest lasting almost three hours. "Daria played brilliantly," said Venus after her defeat. PV Sindhu goes down fighting to Yamaguchi

Birmingham: Olympic silver medalist PV Sindhu lost an epic semi-final against world No. 2 Japanese Akane Yamaguchi to bow out of the $1000,000 All England Badminton Championships, here on Saturday. On the cusp of history, Sindhu failed to build on a handsome lead in the decider to go down 21-19, 21-18, 21-10 to Yamaguchi after battling for an hour and 19 minutes. This was the ninth victory on the trot for the 20-year-old Japanese, who had won the German Open early this month. In scenes similar to the one that went down to the wire in the summit clash of last year's Dubai Super Series Final, both Sindhu and Yamaguchi threw themselves on the court, traversing diagonally again and again during a series of punishing rallies, which defined the edge-of-the-seat thriller. However, in the end it was Yamaguchi, who showed better nerves to walk away with the match and cement a place at the final against World No. 1 Taiwanese Tai Tzu Ying at the Arena Birmingham here. Despite being on the court for almost three-and-a-half hours during the three-game matches in last three days. Sindhu didn't show any sign of fatigue and matched the nimble-footed Yamaguchi as they looked to outdo each other. But there were lapses of concentration in the dying moments and the match was over for her in the end. On Friday, HS Prannoy produced a gallant fight before going down narrowly to China's Huang Xujiang in men's singles quarter finals. In a nail biting last-eight match which swung too frequently, it was a miscued smash from the Indian that ended the gruelling contest 22-20, 16-21, 21-23 in favour of Huang after an hour and 17 minutes. "I'm really disappointed to not reach the semis here," Prannoy said. PTI

Murmu to lead Bengal

■ STAFF REPORTER

Calcutta: Jiten Murmu will lead a 20-member Bengal squad in the Santosh Trophy which begins on Monday. But head coach Ranjan Chowdhury said coach Bengal will not start as favourites due to "worst preparation ever". "I don't recall a time when Bengal was so short of preparation," Chowdhury said.

THE SQUAD

Goalkeepers: Ranojit Majumdar, Laltu Mondal, Sandip Paul; Defenders: Tanmoy Ghosh, Ankit Mukherjee, Krishna Biswas, Manotosh Chakradar, Prosenjit Paul, Sourav Dasgupta, Nabi Hossain Khan; Midfielders: Bidyasagar Singh, Sumit Das, Sujoy Dutta, Tirthankar Sarkar, Babun Das, Sancharan Samaddar, Jagannath Oran; Forwards: Rajon Barman, Jiten Murmu (captain), Sandip Bhatlacharya.

Chief coaches out of squad

■ OUR SPECIAL CORRESPONDENT

New Delhi: Controversy struck Indian boxing on the eve of departure of the squad for the Commonwealth Games when the Boxing Federation of India (BFI) decided to drop the two chief coaches in preference to foreign trainers. In a decision that left even the 12-member team surprised, the BFI excluded men's chief coach SR Singh and women's chief coach Shiv Singh. They will, however, stay with the team during the training camp at the Australian Institute of Sports in Canberra and will return home before the start of the CWG in Gold Coast. Their positions will be taken by high performance director Santiago Nieva and women's high performance manager Raffaele Bergamasco, who will work with assistant coaches. The boxers are unhappy with the development though they are in no position to protest. Privately, they feel the presence of chief coaches would have been helpful. BFI officials claimed the decision was taken to limit the size of the team since the CWG organisers have put a restriction on the number of athletes and officials from each participating nation.

THE SQUAD

Men: 46-49kg: Amit Phangal; 52kg: Gaurav Solanki; 56kg: Husam Mohammed; 60kg: Manish Kaushik; 69kg: Manoj Kumar; 75kg: Vikas Krishnan; 91kg: Naman Tanwar and +91kg: Satish Kumar. Women: 45-48kg: MC Mary Kom; 51kg: Pinki Rani; 60kg: Laisharam Devi and 69kg: Lovlina Boroghain. Reuters

Woods 7 adrift of leaders

Orlando: Bryson DeChambeau closed out his second round with a birdie to join Henrik Stenson at the top of the Arnold Palmer Invitational leaderboard on Friday as Tiger Woods struggled in his bid for a record ninth Bay Hill title. After a scorching opening-round 64 Stenson's play stalled on another cool sunny morning at Bay Hill Golf Club in Orlando with the Swede reeling off 13 consecutive pars. Woods, an eight-time winner at Bay Hill and on the comeback trail after undergoing back fusion surgery last April, began the day four behind Stenson but was unable to keep pace, signing for a scrappy level-par 72 to slip seven behind the front-runners.
